The Trojan
1955

The eighth grade class of 1955 composed of fifty-one students. Highlights of the year included the National Education Week programs, football and basketball games, dances, "Dutch" party over which Barbara Hazen and

Jerry Slaven reigned as king and queen, opperetta "Rumplestiltskin", picnic, issuing the Junior High-Lights, and graduation on May 20, 1955. Eighth graders were also very active in Hi-Y, Y-Teens, and the Junior High Senate.

We Dedicate to the Educators. . . .

As a means of thanking the educators pictured above for twenty-five years of hard work and unselfish devotion we wish to dedicate the 1955 Trojan Yearbook to them. We are extremely grateful for their encouragement and enthusiasm at the times when our inspiration was gone. They have helped to make our work enjoyable and we trust that this yearbook will serve as a remembrance of their many achievements.

Board Of Education

To the new elementary grade school building, both in structure and in administration, will mean future dividends of educational achievement for the present school child to follow. Pleasant surroundings, attractive landscaping, and good teaching instill a sense of belonging and develop proper attitudes in the growing child. With these thoughts in mind, the new Beloit grade school will open its doors in September, 1955.

Business Education
As a Way of Life. . . .

Business Education includes courses in general business, shorthand, bookkeeping, typewriting, office machines, law.

Students majoring in this field are given groundwork to become useful citizens. With skills acquired, they can finance their way in college, or fill positions in offices as graduates have been doing.

These pictures depict steps from training to placement.

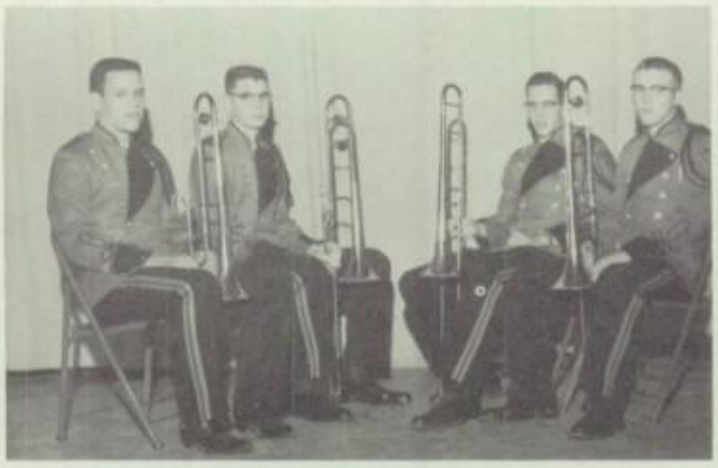
Music and Drama

The Trojan Band, consisting of 68 members, was very active with forty appearances this year. Some of the highlights of the season were County Fair, Topeka Fair, Football games, Manhattan Band Day, Navy Band Parade, District Music Contest, and Spring Concert. The band, under the direction of Ralph C. Fhurken, received a I rating at District Contest.

Band and Orchestra

Although the orchestra was small this year, consisting of only 18 members, it did an excellent job. The orchestra played at District Music Contest and rated a I.

CORNET TRIO: Dolores Donahoo, Cynthia Rawlings, and Karen Allphin.



TROMBONE QUARTET: Dan Wesselowski, Dale Adell, Jan Collins, and James Barrett.

DRUM TRIO: Joyce White, Jim Beu, and Jerry Boettcher.

Instrumental Ensembles

These ensemble groups have all worked very hard and spent many hours of practice on their contest pieces. Those who received I ratings at the district festival were the flute quartet, mixed clarinet quartet, brass sextet, and drum trio. They also all received I ratings at the state festival. Receiving a rating of II at the district festival were the clarinet quartet, cornet trio, and cornet quartet. The trombone quartet received a III rating at the district festival.

Besides playing at the festivals, these groups have performed at church programs, various club meetings, and school assemblies.

BRASS SEXTET: David Muck, Noel Gengler, Janice Cheatham, James Barrett, Dolores Donahoo, and John Simmons.

MIXED CLARINET QUARTET: Sara Toburen, Frances McCollough, Judy Wills, and Mary Young.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teen club led by Barbara Kethcart had a very successful year. The 116 members have participation in the many projects which the club undertook during the year. Some of the committees' projects were: caroling shut-ins at Christmas, decorating the halls at Christmas, food sales, and collecting clothing for the Korean Orphanage.

Barbara Kethcart, president; Karen Allphin, vice-president; Sarah Toburen, secretary; Cynthia Rawlings, treasurer; were the officers for this year. Miss Gillmore and Miss Tinkler helped them in leading the club in its' activities.

The Y-Teen and Hi-Y held a joint meeting March 17. A panel discussion on dating was the program. The panel was composed of a boy and a girl from each class. Those participating were: L-R Jim Beu, Rosemary Wineinger, Kay Reiter, Dan Wesselowski, Linda Jordan, Donnie Stephens, Carolyn Guard, and Judd Thierolf.

The Beloit Hi-Y Club was the host to a Dad-Son Mixer on November 18, 1954, at the Beloit High School. To top the enjoyable evening were two interesting films about Kansas University's basketball team.

A watermelon feed was enjoyed by all high school boys on September 16, 1954, as the opening meeting of the Hi-Y Club. After Vaughn Shamburg gave a welcoming talk, the group adjourned to eat watermelon.

After the usual procedure of the meeting of March 17, Hi-Y secretary, Jotendra Nath Mukerjee of India was introduced as the guest speaker. He spoke of his native country, including the agriculture, schools, religion, and the people.

Jim Grecian, Vaughn Shamburg, Darry Melton, Ted Jones, and Ron McCune had the pleasure of attending the Hi-Y Model Legislature in Topeka on December 3 and 4, 1954. The convention was designed to teach the students correct legislative procedure. Beloit took two bills to the legislature to be debated upon.

FOOTBALL

Beloit got off to a slow start this year, but finished up with a good all season record of 5 wins and 4 losses. The Beloit fans got the biggest thrill when the Trojans whipped the Smith Center Redmen 35-13 after being behind 13-7 at half time. Beloit could field an all season team anytime they wanted to. The Trojans had a lot in underclass men, with a few of them playing almost regularly.

Co-Captains

Dick Caraway

The Beloit Trojan Football team elected three seniors to lead them in their 1954 season. Darrell Fulhage, quarterbacked the team to a very good season. Darrell was out last year and could not play, but he was one of the outstanding players this year. Wayne Huggins was Beloit's hard-driving halfback. Wayne turned in many a fine run and always played hard. Dick Caraway was the Trojan regular guard. Dick has been playing on the "A" team for three years and he has always turned in a good performance.

Track

The Beloit Trojan thinclads had a very busy season this year, participating in nine meets. The first occurring on March 26, was an indoor meet at K-State at which Beloit received ten points. Then on April 7, Beloit was host to the Beloit Invitational track meet in which Beloit took first place with 91 1/2 points. Next came a triangular meet held at Beloit with the Trojans taking first place with 145 1/2 points. Downs and Minneapolis also participated in this meet. Several of the Trojans of Coach Harrison then traveled to the K-U Relays with Beloit receiving two points.

Then came the Beloit Relays, one of the biggest meets in central Kansas. Clay Center won the class A title and Haven class B with Beloit taking forth. The NCKL meet was held on May 6 at the Beloit field with Concordia taking first, Beloit taking second and Marysville third. Finally at the regional at Hays, the Trojans captured forth place qualifing several men for the state meet.
